RETURN POLICY

You have the right to return undamaged and unused products. Notification about this shall be done immediately upon reception of the product or latest 30 days after reception. The notification shall be sent to customer-care@meridioband.com, please have your order number at hand when contacting us.

The message shall contain the following information:

- a) order number
- b) payment confirmation
- c) title of the product you wish to return.

The returned product shall be in an unused and undamaged state in its original package. Return the product together with a printed copy of the payment confirmation together with the Meridio RETURN FORM where you have filled out the reason for return and other required information.

You are responsible for the shipping of returned items back to www.meridioband.com. Items lost in transportation will not be compensated for. Return against cash on delivery is not accepted. The responsibility for errors in ordered products is limited to the terms now stated.

Refunds for returned merchandise will be made within two weeks of the return of the product, to the original purchaser's credit card. Note that additional duties and/or taxes will not be refunded. Neither will shipping costs. For countries within the EU, VAT will be included in the refund. All exchanges are subject to availability.
